

November 7, 1923.

Fred L. Allen, Esq.,
224 East 4th Street,
Los Angeles, Cal.

Dear Fred:

Thanks for your subscription. I expect the books out about the 20th of this month and yours shall be sent you promptly.

You cannot imagine how happy it makes me, after waiting vainly for more than 30 years, to be able to bring out this First Book of the dear old Songs, which have meant so much to me through the better part of my life.

You will be glad to know that the first edition is already practically subscribed - two weeks in advance of publication - and that a second thousand will be ordered before the first is distributed.

I am getting stronger and hope by taking better care of myself than I know how to do, and with decent luck, to be spared for a good many years for a fairly useful life.

With love and gentle memories,

Always your Friend,

CFL/R